SYRUP OF FIGS KENTUCKY.

SIGNS UNSEARCHED AT BLUE LICK SPRINGS.

Evidences of a Prehistoric People—
Brought to Light by Excavations—Holes in Sistrum.

PAVEMENT THROWN IN AGES PAST.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS
is due not only to the originality and simplicity of its composition, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known only to the proprietors of the
Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true Syrup of Figs from the makers of the genuine Syrup of Figs manufactured
by the CALIFORNIA FIG NURSE CO.
only, and to keep away from the
imitations now in vogue.

Discoveries of the greatest importance
in American archaeology have been made at the celebrated Blue Lick Springs, near Louisville, Ky., by Prof.
G. C. Hartman, of the University of Kentucky. Several other finds of interest have been made at the same place.

The court of appeals has affirmed the decision of the circuit court in favor of Mr. T. W. Hartman. He requested that the court reverse the decision made by Prof. Bradford, of the State Geological Survey, that the bones found at the springs were of recent origin.

One of the bones plainly indicates that the owner was a man of a considerable population, and perhaps the site is a large town, in the era of the caveman. The true genius of Syrup of Figs is manufactured
by the CALIFORNIA FIG NURSE CO.
only, and to keep away from the
imitations now in vogue.

In view of these extraordinary discoveries, we call attention to the Kourier correspondent's investigation, which can be seen in the columns of the Courier and Journal. The California Fig Nurse Co. with the scientific and medical profession, and the satisfaction with the genuine Syrup of Figs has given the name of the company to the name of the product, and the quality of the excellence of its remedy. It is for the public to judge, and as it acts on the kidneys, liver, lungs, heart, and bones without irritating or weakening them, it is safe and reliable, and useless. In order to get the genuine Syrup of Figs, please remember
the name of the company.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1.

Reporters from all over the district indicate that Dempsey will be nominated for Railroad Commissioner at Hopkinsville next Friday by acclamation.

COURAGE is as essential in the practice of politics as in any other of the affairs of life. The fact that we "love the brethren" should be as much a test in politics as in religion.

TRAITOR ignorance leads to crime finds a splendid object lesson, in the fact that only 18 of the 499 prisoners confined in the penitentiary at Eddyville are reported as having a good education.

A NEWSPAPER'S word, to a great extent, is judged by the number of its吸引人 (attracting) and other) who find lodgment in the columns of other good papers. This HERALD is proud to often acknowledge such courtesy.

A LOUISVILLE Judge has ruled that a house-keeper is a man who actually runs and controls a house hold. Really, now, brethren, from a literal understanding of the term, how many of us could serve our country in this capacity?

SENATOR GOEBEL says very emphatically that he had nothing whatever to do with the filing of the suit to appoint a receiver for the Louisville Dispatch. It seems to us that the man's integrity should demand that his assertion on this subject be treated with respect.

HARTFORD's new brick machine will not turn out the pressed article. There are so many others who will follow the occupation of pressing brick in Hartford during the spring and summer months that the Messrs. Bean Bros. will not undertake to break up this monopoly.

It is now Admiral Dewey, that honor having been conferred upon the fighting hero of the Philippines by Congress, at the President's suggestion. It is a title nobly won and handsomely deserved. There are few people in the United States whose hearts are not thrilled with a sense of fond admiration at the mere mention of Dewey's name.

SENATOR WM. GOEBEL's speech at the court house Monday was a manly, dignified effort, delivered in a forceful and fearless style peculiarly characteristic. Mr. Goebel is an impressive speaker and evinces a memory of names and dates which adds much interest to his talk. He is an expert politician, a man of marked ability, but as a statesman and an orator, and even those who have seen him in his place concede his capability. He is a stranger to most of the people of Western Kentucky, but is a young man who is fast coming to the front.

There is a vast difference between the rewards which Uncle Sam accords to the brave men who fight his battles, and the treatment which Spain bestows upon the defeated. The former are highly estimable towards the brave fighting Generals of her army and navy is the best indication of the contemptible and inhuman spirit that predominates in the government of that nation. Admiral Montijo, Gen. Toral and the commandant of the Caribe fleet have been thrown into prison at Madrid. Their crimes consist in fighting the U. S. forces until their last ship was sunk or until defense became madness, there was no possible way of escape, and capitulation was inevitable. Such ingratitude towards the gallant men who bravely held out the last minute, but serve to further dislodge Spain from the unenlightened and degenerate nations of the earth.

CEREBRO-MENINGITIS has come to be the dread of almost everybody in this section of the country nowadays, and it is as sudden as they are unexpected. In the presence of its ravages the best physicians stand helpless and appalled.

The cause of this disease is not yet discovered, and it seems there is no specific for its cure. Its action upon the system is an inflammation of the covering of the brain and spinal cord. There are no certain premonitory symptoms, and there is no crisis in a case. The victim soon becomes unconscious and remains in a dangerous condition until he dies or is well on the road to recovery. The doctors say it is infectious, but not contagious—that it is not transmissible from one person to another like small-pox, but it is in the air and one person is about as liable to take it as another.

A person should keep his system in good order, the secretions moving right and all the organs of the body working perfectly. Those who would employ preventive measures, should consult a physician who will prescribe a treatment best suited to each case.

The Louisiana Lottery once flourished in the South and wielded a power which it seemed almost impossible to break. It made millions of dollars off the country, and many persons impoverished themselves to keep their names on the list of its monthly drawings. It was considered all to be a game of giant proportions, and many of the patrons themselves wished they had never heard of it. Finally the people became aroused to such a pitch that they arose in their majesty and crushed this octopus and also abolished other lottery institutions of lesser proportions.

It is going to be the same way with the trust of this country. Almost everybody can now see the injury which they inflict upon many lines of business, but still they are allowed to exist. But the people will soon arise in their might and smother the trusts as they did the lotteries, and glorious will that day be.

The subject of good roads is being brought home to the people nowadays in a way which is convincing if nothing more. The real value of good thoroughfares is never more apparent than when the time is ripe for a road to become deep, and in some places even a frostroad can be found for the horse's feet. It is then that we begin to speculate,筹划, articulate, and indulge in other vain expressions of our discomfort.

But our interest generally wears off, and we lose sight of the fact that again, about this season of the year, we'll be undergoing a like experience. Really, will it always be thus? There is no relief for a mud-beaten people and no one to call us to a rail and help us out of the hole? It does seem that there should be some system of competent road-building devised—by taxlevy or otherwise—which would afford the people profitable thoroughfares at all seasons of the year.

EVERY good Democrat in Kentucky deeply deplores the unfortunately imbroglio in which the Goebel and Hardin factions have become involved. There was no cause for alarm, but the trouble originated in the minds of a few jealous and hot-headed politicians who could brook no interference with their favorite's chances. We are slow to believe that any blame could be honestly placed upon either Mr. Goebel or Mr. Hardin individually. They are both good Democrats, against whom party loyalty and personal prestige no incriminating accusation can be brought. But as the master now stands, there is much hard feeling manifested on both sides. Friends of each candidate, who are sincere in their support to this point, there would be more Democratic victories and a better system of government for the state.

The Press of Kentucky.

Under the above heading the Louisville Dispatch says the following compliment to the State press: No state in the Union has a more patriotic devotion to the right for the right's sake than the country news media. The press of Kentucky is independent, politically and personally. The ultra gold-diggers of the Commonwealth shall meet in the city of Hopkinsville on Saturday, March 4, at 2 o'clock p. m., on Saturday March 4, to consider the question.

Whence the committee adjourned.

CHARLES M. MORSE, Chairman.

CHARLES M. MORSE, Secretary.

Fair & Co's GREAT TEN DAYS' SALE PRIOR TO MOVING INTO THEIR NEW QUARTERS

Will be one long to be remembered in Ohio county. Commencing to-day we will slaughter prices right and left until we vacate our present house. Cautious buyers will early recognize the facilities that can be offered by a store like ours. It's large stock, it's low prices, it's fair treatment, it's alertness to modify prices and to place temptingly before its customers the newest, the most varying and cheapest of all possible attractions:
